

RADIO HONGKONG 860 kcs 370m AN ENQUIRY INTO THE NARCOTICS PROBLEM

Narcotics—since the publication of the Hongkong Government's White Paper in November 1959 a great deal of interest has been aroused in the serious problem of narcotic drugs in the Colony.

Considerable publicity has been given to it as part of a drive to eradicate this cancer in our society.

Radio Hongkong's Features Producer, Victor Price, has made a close enquiry into this frightening problem, resulting in two feature programmes, the first of which, "The Vicious Circle," can be heard at 9 o'clock Tuesday. "The Vicious Circle" deals with the first of the two aspects which Victor Price sees to the narcotics situation, the hard facts of addiction itself—where narcotic drugs come from, what makes a man take to them, the effects they'll have on him, and what is being done here and elsewhere to stamp them out.

The second aspect, that of the rehabilitation of the addict is dealt with in the second programme which he's called "Operation Rescue." In it, he concentrates on the work being done at Tai Lam Prison and it will be broadcast on 19th April.

Easter, like Christmas, is one of the times in the year when the sense of musical taste is flared in favour of the serious music enthusiast. This week's Radio Page takes us up to Good Friday—next week we shall have something to say about Easter Sunday onwards.

Radio Hongkong's music and other programmes on Friday largely reflect the solemnity of the occasion this day commemorates. There's a concert of music by the London Philharmonic Orchestra—music by Handel and Bach—early in the day; songs by the Jacobean Singers at midday; music for Passiontide and Easter from Brompton Oratory, Chichester Cathedral, Aghia Sophia, and the Greek Cathedral during the afternoon; and some of the music related to Holy Week in Spain at 6 in the evening. From Hongkong there comes at 6.45 p.m. recordings of a concert given by the Hongkong Oratorio Society at the Alliance Church earlier in the week.

The church service on Good Friday—"The Way of the Cross"—comes from the Roman Catholic Cathedral at 10 a.m. Other special programmes in the day are the Meditation on the Passion of Our Lord by Charles Peguy read by the English actress Flora Robson at 11.30 a.m. and a Meditation upon the Cross read by two of the best known BBC voices—Valentine Dyall and James McKelvie—with music by the Linden Singers at 2.30.

Undoubtedly the dramatic highlight of the day is "World Theatre" at 9.20 in the evening. "The True Mystery of the Passion" is the first production in the English language of the Medieval French play by the brothers Greban.

What of other programmes in this Holy Week? Two which have a place in Lent are the last of the Lent talks by Ministers in the Colony which is given on Wednesday at 6.45 by the Right Reverend R. O. Hall, Bishop of Hongkong. It's title is "The Cross." The second programme is a concert of "Lenten Musical Fare" from the Roman Catholic Cathedral, sung by the Cathedral Choir, at 7.15 tomorrow.

THE MORE 'DIFFICULT' THE CUSTOMER, THE EASIER THE SALE BROADWOOD MOUTRIE EAVESTAFF

It is, above all, the hard-to-please musician to whom our instruments appeal. The reason is clear. Our craftsmanship is essentially keyed to a critical market. To the appreciative they offer the tonal beauty and the superb touch which have won the musical world's esteem. Or no less appeal to good judgment are the elegant case designs which give our instruments their dignity and grace. The exacting ear, the fastidious eye, endorse the worth of a piano from MOUTRIES.

REDIFFUSION A 'SHOWCASE' SPECIAL: GOOD FRIDAY MUSIC

Rediffusion is presenting a special edition of "Showcase" on Tuesday at 7.15 p.m. featuring music and scenes from the Garrison Players' production of "Peer Gynt" by Henrik Ibsen.

This play, for which Edward Grieg wrote incidental music, is the only play that Ibsen wrote in a light vein. He has become world famous for his serious social dramas, but "Peer Gynt" while presenting a serious comment on human nature, is purely a fantasy. In this edition of "Showcase," members of the Garrison Players will present excerpts from the play.

Rediffusion has arranged for Father Henry Beretta to present a special half-hour programme of Good Friday Music on April 15th at 9.00 p.m. The programme will feature the Rosary Church Choir under the direction of Father Henry Beretta.

Tonight at 9.30 p.m. Rediffusion presents Binnie Hale in a programme called "A Star Remembers." Featured with Binnie in this show is baritone Donald Scott. They are supported by the BBC Theatre Chorus and Sidney Torch and his Orchestra.

A play in word and sound by James Hanley will be broadcast tonight at 10 p.m. entitled "A Winter Journey".

Jorja Curtright stars in Movietown Theatre this Wednesday.
